SUB: Multiple larcenies from motor vehicles

On 09/11/11, the Middlebury Police Department received several reports of thefts from vehicles parked in various locations around Middlebury. In each case, valuables were taken from unlocked vehicles. The stolen items included, among other things, golf clubs, a chain saw, electronics and tools. The total value of items stolen was $4650.

After reviewing surveillance video at the scene of one of the thefts, officers identified a suspect vehicle as a green two-door Toyota Tercel.

Officers later responded to a complaint at the Blue Spruce Motel in Middlebury, and saw a green two-door Toyota Tercel in the parking lot. The trunk of the vehicle was open and a set of golf clubs was visible in the trunk.

After conducting a search of the vehicle, the stolen items were recovered. Another item was recovered from inside a hotel room.

Frederick H. Beck, DOB: 05/26/83 of West Chazy, NY, was arrested for Grand Larceny and lodged at the Addison County Sheriff's Department on $35,000 bail.

Jennifer A. Desrocher, DOB: 08/05/83 was arrested for Accessory to Grand Larceny and was cited to appear in Addison Superior Court-Criminal Division on 09/12/11.
